

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1908

MAYSVILLE, KY., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1912.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE PRINCIPAL OF THE THING.

When Jones was young he started in to "stand up for his rights"; For property not worth a pin He was involved in fights; He always said: "It ain't no much The copper cent, by jing! I'm gettin' Cutch's too-bold clutch For the principal of the thing."

Hold fast about a nickel when The hatcher was o'paid; He'd haggle with his fellow men Unto the almighty shade; And always, in each daily row, Something like this he'd sing: "I'm peaceable—but fightin' now For the principal of the thing."

When Jones grew old his voice would crack In sheer excess of wrath; Of friends he had a wondrous lack— He trod a lonely path; But still he quavered, as of old, The song he used to sing: "I ain't a-fightin' for the gold— 'It's the principle of the thing!"

—Denver Republican.

NOTICE TO DELINQUENTS.

Owing to the fact that many of our subscribers on the Rural routes are dropping behind in their accounts and the amounts thus continue to increase from month to month, and that a large number of them ignore our repeated demands for a settlement, we have fired of sending THE PUBLIC LEDGER this way and then realizing nothing in return. Besides, it is very expensive to us and a violation of the postal laws; therefore we will send another statement to each delinquent and then take such legal action necessary to get what is due us and at the same time meet the requirements of the Postoffice Department. Respectfully,

A. F. CURRAN.

No man likes it very well when his wife serves on a committee.—Ed Howe.

The most sensible and far-reaching bill enacted by the Legislature was the primary law. It puts every man on the same footing at the ballot box.—Jessamine News.

Former Representative J. Adam Bede, of Minnesota, has just completed a trip through New England and Pennsylvania and in an interview in Washington says:

Taft not a Trimmer. "I am for Taft for a renomination because I know what he is made of. The Republican party has never turned down for a second term a President who was willing to accept it. Nor have we ever given a third term to anybody who wanted it. A year ago Mr. Taft told me what this one and that one wished him to do, assuring him that if he would do so he would be re-elected. Bringing his fist down on the table, he declared: 'I would rather be President for two years than a trimmer for six. I am not playing politics with the office of President.'"

Senator Bradley thus speaks out against O'Rear's attempt to carry water on both shoulders:

"I was for Mr. Fairbanks in 1908 and did not try to succeed by declaring that I would vote as instructed, although I am frank to say I would have voted according to instructions. Notwithstanding I was then United States Senator elect the convention did not hesitate to defeat me for delegate, of which I made no complaint, but heartily indorsed Mr. Taft's candidacy. We have a number of candidates for delegate from the State at large who are consistently for Mr. Taft and can be implicitly relied upon, and I think it would be very unwise to select a man who has the record of Mr. O'Rear as a delegate to the national convention. If Mr. O'Rear were for Mr. Taft the position of matters would be entirely different."

Former Governor Henry C. Warmouth of Louisiana, when seen at the Stafford, was willing to give his opinions regarding the political situation in his country. "We will have two Republican delegations to the Chicago convention," said Governor Warmouth, "but both of them will be in favor of President Taft's renomination."

"Nobody who has a grain of political sense doubts for a moment that the President will be renominated and I wish I felt as sure of going to a better land when I die as I do of his re-election in November. It may seem like I am absurdly optimistic in saying that President Taft will carry Louisiana this fall, and yet that is just what is going to happen. Naturally the state is Democratic, but this year exceptional conditions prevail. The course of the Democrats in Congress, striking a mortal blow at sugar, is going to convert life long Democrats into straight-out Republicans. Regardless of what Washington politicians may say, our people know that free sugar means the destruction of our great cane interests and the loss of every dollar of the millions that have been invested in sugar machinery. It is not in human nature to go to the polls and vote for that party which is on record as ready to crucify one's material interest. Just note my prediction and watch Taft break the solid South."

New York, Roosevelt's home state, today will instruct, nearly unanimously for President Taft. More fraud(?)

Senator Bradley is a very plain spoken man; not a bit too plain spoken, however, when frauds and falacies are to be punctured. Bradley's course in the Taft campaign has been forceful and consistent and in the years to come he will be numbered among the Presidents most loyal friends and supporters.

Regarded only from the standpoint of expediency, the naming of anybody but Mr. Taft would be a fatal blunder. Will Mr.

Time for Roosevelt to Quit

Roosevelt, with the hopelessness of his own effort now made clear, turn to the aid of his party?

His printed comments on the recent conventions and the New York primary do not point in that direction, it must be confessed. He is bitter about the results everywhere, and is voicing a venom that comes strangely from him. Caucuses, conventions and primaries alike are execrated in his utterance. However delegates are chosen if they are against him he heaps obloquy on the method of their selection, and cries out that all the world is rotten. Persistence in such language will inevitably react upon Mr. Roosevelt himself.

The American people are experienced in election matters. They know of old that it is always the poor loser who attributes his defeat to fraud, but they have not looked upon Theodore Roosevelt in the past as the kind of man who descends to this cheap talk.

Mr. Roosevelt could do nothing that would so surely strip from him every rag of reputation for high courage as to continue his emulation of cheap political methods.

The true choice for the ex-President today is to come out manfully and to admit his defeat.

His whole-hearted activity thereafter in support of his party would restore to him the esteem and affection among the American people which he is now fast losing.—Detroit Free Press.

Rochester Union and Advertiser: The Colonel is going to be a great help to the Democrats this year.

Philadelphia Inquirer: In brief, Theodore Roosevelt has become a through-going demagogue, whose word is of no value what ever.

Kansas City Journal: In Roosevelt's Louisville speech it is "the crown of thorns and cross of gold" brought down to date, with the judicial recall, the country life commission and distrust of the people substituted for free silver and some of the other Bryan populism's current sixteen years ago.

Arkansas Gazette: "The Republican party," said Col. Roosevelt at Louisville, "is now facing a great crisis." Sure it is. And as if the situation were not bad enough already, you are making it worse by your disruptive speeches. More power to your elbow—and to your jawbone.

EARLY CHURCHES

In Lewis County and Interesting Facts Connected With Them

A Vanceburg correspondent of The Portsmouth Blade, writes the following interesting facts and history of the first house of worship built in Lewis county:

I find upon the Lewis County Court records with date of May 15th, 1798, deed from Joseph C. Vance and wife and Moore Baird and wife to John Dyal, lots Nos. 2, 11, 31, 44 and two fractional lots in the city of Vanceburg, Ky. These lots are now in the center of the city, except the fractional lot which long since went down the Ohio river. It is highly probable that Mr. Vance here named is of the same family for whom our city is named.

Probably the first house of worship in Lewis county was erected at Valley about seven miles out from Vanceburg on Saltlick Creek. The deed to this property was made by John McDaniel and wife on the 21st day of November, 1807, to London Colver, William Harper, William Hance and Samuel Cox, trustees. This Church organization was moved to Popular Flat to the place known as Salem and deed was made by John Hayden, December 19th, 1830, to Caleb and James Richards and William Hendrickson, trustees.

"Old Ebenezer, the Presbyterian Church near Cottageville, on Cabin Creek, was in existence before 1819. A County Court held August 16th, 1819, George Meens, George Maple, Archibald Boyd and William Robb were appointed as trustees to receive deed for the property.

It is said that Barton W. Stone preached the doctrine of the Christian Church at East Fork in 1805, but this is uncertain.

The Methodist brethren established on Cabin Creek at Bethel, as shown by deed dated July 9th, 1836. They also had another lot on Cabin Creek, with deed made from Isaac Carey to Thomas Warrin, Lewis Singer, Angille Smith, Barnet West and William Barnet West and William Richards and dated September 21, 1835.

"Old Union," built by Baptists, Methodists, New School Presbyterians and Christian Churches, who used it alternately one Sunday each in the month. The land for this house was deeded to trustees by Charles Sweeney, July 19th, 1845.

Martin Fork, Christian church was organized in 1851, Sand Hill, September 12th, 1858, and Vanceburg, 1861.

"There's lots of music in 'em

And when some gray-haired
Brother sings the ones I used to know,
I aorta want to take a haad—I Think of days gone by—

Stood and cast a wishful eye."

By a vote of 21 to 4 the Arizona House passed a bill granting suffrage to women.
